I see strawberries now are out
At sixty cents a quart;
They're quoted somewhere thereabout, According to report.
The price is not designed to suit
All purses, you'll agree;
But, as I like this stylish fruit, I may buy two or three.

A LA CARTE BANQUET.

The girls and young ladies of the G. A. and Y. W. A. societies of the First Baptist church are preparing to give an a la carte banquet Tuesday evening from 8 to 1 o'clock. A literary and musical program is being prepared, short addresses by prominent speakers, and all who attend are assured that there will not be a dull moment. The members of these two societies are wide-awake young people who believe in doing things and they extend a hearty invitation to all members of the church and friends to come and bring their friends also.

WE KNEW IT!

Peach Chop Is Dead As a Door Nail In This Section, Says Lawrence County (O.) Man.

The 1916 peach crop in this section will not average 10 per cent of the normal, according to the opinion of U. T. Cox of Ensey, Lawrence county, Ohio, a well known orchardist. Mr.
Cox says that the Elberta peaches, the standard peaches for this section, have nearly all been killed as the result of the zero weather following extended periods of warm weather in which the fruit reached a too advanced stage of development.

However, the outlook is not entirely a gloomy one, from the standpoint of the orchardist, according to Mr.
Cox, who says that other fruits promise well, especially early apples.

HOUSTON PICKED TO SUCCEED GARRISON AS SECRETARY OF WAR.

Washington, February 18.—The name of Secretary of Agriculture Houston continued to be most promi-nently mentioned tonight for the vacancy in the cabinet caused by the resignation of Secretary of War Garrison. "It's Houston against the field," was the way one White House official characterized the situation tonight.

CREDIT RATING AND COLLECTION BUREAU.

COUNTY COURT.

In Friday's County Court, a paper bearing date of April 12, 1907, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Wood, deceased, was produced and ordered filed. The due execution of said paper was proven by the testimony of W. O. Wood and H. L. Walsh, attesting witnesses thereto, and was admitted to probate. W. O. Wood and H. B. Wood, named in the last will of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Wood, deceased, as executors thereof, appeared in court and qualified as such without surety as was requested in the will.

NEGOTIATIONS OFF PENDING THE LATEST AMERICAN DE- MANDS.

Washington, February 18.—Negotiations looking to a settlement of the Lusitania case have come to an abrupt halt. Confirming this came the announcement by Count von Bernstorff that he had not only not transmitted to his government the new demands of the United States, but that he could not say definitely when he would do so. It is probable the German ambassador will delay cabling Berlin the new revisions demanded by the State Department until Monday.

CALLED TO COVINGTON.

Mr. W. L. Stickleby was called to Covington Saturday morning to attend the bedside of his wife, who is seri-

OUR HOBBY IS LINEN

Good linens interest us like good pictures interest an artist. Linen buying and selling are favorite activities of our mercantile life. And we think we know linens from A to Z. We certainly ought to know linen after more than thirty years experience in merchandising it. As proof of special values in our present sale we call your attention to the following:

Exquisite double Satin Damask, 2½ yards wide. No pattern detracts from the lovely quality—surface is unrelieved except by its snowy, glistening lustre. At $3.98 this beautiful damask is CHEAP.
Turkish towels woven with double thread warp. Pretty fast-color borders give variety to these excellent towels. 25c.
You won't believe in the dye shortage when you see the lovely shades of blue, rose, lavender and pink in our yard wide Dress Linen for 39c and 49c.
White Costume Linens of attractive quality 50c to $1½ yard.

NEW SILK DRESSES FOR $6 AND $7

You will never have a chance to buy a silk dress for so little. The dresses arrived late in the season and are not mussed from handling. The styles are all attractive and the price is less than half. Not very many, so if you are interested don't delay.
